

Esi Boateng

Candidate for President

Faculty of Engineering | Level 400

"A voice for every student."

ABOUT THE CANDIDATE

I am Esi Boateng, an Engineering student passionate about inclusive governance. Every student deserves to be heard — regardless of faculty, gender, or background. I will build systems that make your voice matter.

MANIFESTO HIGHLIGHTS

- Student welfare emergency fund
- Transparent governance portal
- Internship partnerships with industry
- Gender equity initiatives
- Faculty liaison office network

DETAILED POLICY POSITIONS

1. INCLUSIVE GOVERNANCE

Create a student representative portal where any student can submit concerns directly to the SRC. Responses will be published within 72 hours.

2. WELFARE & SUPPORT

Establish a dedicated welfare fund to support students facing financial hardship. Work with university counselling to expand mental health resources.

3. CAREER & INDUSTRY

Partner with engineering firms, tech companies, and financial institutions to provide guaranteed internship slots for GCTU students each semester.

4. GENDER EQUITY

Launch a gender equity task force to address barriers facing women and minority groups on campus. Create safe reporting channels for harassment.

5. COMMUNICATION

Weekly SRC updates via WhatsApp, email, and notice boards. No more decisions made in silence.

GCTU SRC Elections 2025 / 2026 | GT-Vote — Secure. Anonymous. Your voice matters.